

Hotel Amarano in Burbank Unveils New Name and Website, and Exciting New Special Offers

BURBANK, CA – November 1, 2007 –Hotel Amarano Burbank, Burbank’s only luxury boutique hotel, is proud to announce its recent change of name. Formerly the Graciela Burbank Hotel, the newly-named Hotel Amarano Burbank continues to provide the utmost in service and hotel facilities.

“As Burbank’s only luxury boutique hotel, Hotel Amarano Burbank is constantly evolving in order to keep good on its promise to provide every guest the ultimate hotel experience. Our change of name is part of that evolution,” says John Doupounce, the hotel’s General Manager. “We think Amarano suggests the kind of opulence and hospitality that guests find at our hotel.”

But there’s more. To commemorate the hotel’s rebirth, the hotel has launched a brand-new website. Online visitors to www.HotelAmarano.com will enjoy an aesthetically rich experience, while an easy-to-navigate, comprehensive functionality guides them through all the steps. Guests who want to book online will enjoy a secure, user-friendly online booking engine, providing guests all of the pleasures with none of the hassles.

To celebrate the name change, Hotel Amarano has put together several exciting new special offers: Weekend bed & Breakfast Package, Romantic Getaway, Universal Studios Package, Internet Special, Wicked Package, and a golf package. The new Weekend Bed and Breakfast Package includes:

- Premier Deluxe King Room with Kitchen
- 2 cocktails per night. One per person
- Breakfast for 2 daily, either in-room dining or in the Garden Room
- Full menu choice
- Includes taxes & gratuity
- Package starts at $299/night

“We know guests will want to take advantage of our special offers and the chance to get to know the newer side of Hotel Amarano in Burbank. Once they do, they’ll find that, while the names may change, the superior luxury and quality of service will always remain the same,” Doupounce says proudly. “Guests will enjoy our special offers this package on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, when relaxation is at its prime.”

Hotel Amarano is located in the heart of the entertainment capital of the world, around the corner from Warner Brothers Studios, one mile from the Universal Studios, and only minutes away from NBC Studios and Jay Leno's Tonight Show.
